CURRENT PROFESSIONAL WORK

THE KWEK SOCIETY. Founder and President. Chief executive of 501(c)(3) nonprofit organized in 2018 that strives to end period poverty for those we help by providing pads, tampons, underwear, moon time bags (cloth bags sewn by our supporters and filled with period supplies) and educational materials, to Native American students (kwe'k in the Potawatomi language) who cannot afford these expensive necessities. The Society trumpets the students' successes and fulfills their other material needs as our funds and time allow. As of early 2020, The Kwek Society supports almost 40 schools and school-affiliated programs in New Mexico, Oklahoma, South Dakota, Wyoming, and Ontario, Canada, See kweksociety.org.
